Further Information

Electrical supply to the airfield is limited, therefore we ask that you do not bring electric kettles, hairdryers and other high voltage electrical items as they can trip the supply.

The charging of phones, camera equipment and DVD players is permitted.

Please report any damage to reception or a member of staff.

Please leave your room in a clean and tidy condition.

Personal and valuable possessions are left entirely at your own risk. Skydive Hibaldstow cannot take any responsibility for any items left unattended.

We remind all customers that on busy weekends in particular that the bunkhouse can become very noisy, and ask that you are quiet and considerate when others may be sleeping.

Abusive or aggressive behaviour towards other customers or staff will not be tolerated.

Dogs and other animals/pets are not permitted on the dropzone under any circumstances (except guidedogs) so please leave them at home.

Smoking is strictly prohibited in and around the bunkhouse.

Please ensure all doors are closed in the building – they are fire doors and are not effective if left open. For the same reason please do not prop doors open.

Open fires and BBQs are not permitted on the airfield.

All names of persons staying in each room must be provided.

Café facilities

It is advisable if you are arriving late at night to have your evening meal before you set off as there are no catering facilities onsite and it is likely other than in peak Summer periods that our café will be closed. Restaurants and takeaways can be found in the nearby town of Brigg.

Breakfast is available every morning when the airfield is open. Cards are not currently accepted, cash only.
